Discussions

- Interpretive Signage for Walking Trails - review of material received from Ken Webb - once all of the information has been received each interpretive sign will be laminated and put on wood slab and covered with plexiglass to protect them from the weather. They will be installed at the proper locations described in the signs along both the Whitestone Lake Trail and the Nesbitt Trail to add some interest along the trails.
- Fun in the Sun Advertisement - noted.
- Review of Video Scripts - the committee reviewed the draft received from Virginia Hastings at Starshine Video Productions. Some additional changes were suggested. The draft will go back to Virginia Hastings to be amended and an updated draft will be provided for the committee's review.
- Work Day for Walking Trails Cleanup - the committee has planned a work day on Saturday, June 1, 2013 to clean up the Whitestone Lake Trail and the Nesbit Trail, install the rustic benches being built, install additional directional signs and install the interpretive signage at the locations of interest.

New Business - None.

Unfinished Business

- Georgian Bay Country - Doors Open Ontario 2013 - Saturday, September 28, 2013 - Walking Trails Tours.

Question Period for the Public - None.
